Kids in Khakis

Holy Trinity is partnering with 3:11 Ministries for their school uniform drive, Kids in Khakis.
Many students have outgrown the uniforms they started the school in last August.

We are collecting khaki uniform pants
(no cargo pockets) and white polo shirts (no logos)
from now until Wednesday, February 10. Boxes marked
'Kids in Khakis' are located in the parish hall all week and in the Narthex on Sunday. The Narthex box will be moved to the office area through the week for any donations.
Khaki uniform pants in sizes 6 through 16 are needed;
as well as white polo shirts of all sizes. These can be purchased at many stores in Midland; Kohls, Target, and Old Navy to name a few. Pants and shirts can also be ordered online.

2016 Vestry Candidates

Anne W. Hover

Anne is a life-long Midlander. She grew up at First Presbyterian Church and after marriage to George, a Catholic, they settled on Holy Trinity 33 years ago. Anne graduated from Lee High School and received a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Broadcast Film from Southern Methodist University. She has been a freelance photographer, office nurse, Development Director for High Sky Children's Ranch, community volunteer and Mom to 3 children.

She is a past president of the Junior League of Midland, Ballet Midland, Prevent Blindness of Midland, Trinity School Parents Association and The Minuet Club. She has served on the Springboard Center Board and Capital Campaign and Casa de Amigos Board. She is currently serving on the I-20 Wildlife Preserve and Jenna Welch Nature Study Center Board.

At Holy Trinity, Anne has served on the Vestry two times (6 years) and has headed two Search Committees. She has served as ECW chairman of Holy Trinity and as the ECW Diocesan President. She has taught Sunday School and has sung in the choir for 25 years. She is currently the Chairman of the Membership and Community Council. She envisions HT to continue to grow and offer even more to a healthy membership of parishioners all connected through the love of Christ our Lord.

She is still married to George (37 years!) and has 4 grandchildren.

J David Overton

I have put my name in the hat for a term on the Vestry. My wife Carol and I joined the Holy Trinity family in 1987 and raised our two daughters, Betsy and Abby in the parish. I have served as a member of the Vestry (one year as Sr. Warden), as a substitute Sunday School Teacher for Adults, Sr. High and Jr. High, as a sponsor for EYC, as a LEM (especially for the 8:00 Sunday service and Men's Breakfast on Wednesdays), as a Men's Breakfast cook, as a member of the Bookstore Committee, and as a member of the Endowment Board. I came into the parish on a high note and am deeply grateful to God and Jesus to see it growing again. I look forward to serving you on the Vestry, if that is the desire of the parishioners.

Robert Eubanks

I grew up in Oak Cliff in Dallas and attended SMU where I met my wife Ann of 35 years. Prior to my marriage I moved to Midland in search of opportunity. I have been involved in the oil business in Midland for 36 years managing corporations, partnerships and investing on my account. Ann and I joined Holy Trinity in the early 80s and raised three children in the church two of whom are now married. We have one grandchild with one on the way. I served as head usher from 1987-1993 following Niran Kellogg and have been on the search committee at Holy Trinity. I would love to become more involved at Holy Trinity. It would an honor to serve as member of the vestry.

Mary Lou Cassidy

Mary Lou Cassidy is a life-long member of Holy Trinity. She is a lay reader, has been a Diocesan delegate and served on several vestries. Mary Lou is probably best known as that woman who gives the humorous State of the Church Report at the Annual Meeting. Her vision of our future is growth with tranquility. Her wish list includes more visible Holy Trinity involvement in Midland and in the Diocese.

Reagan Niemann

Hello, my name is Reagan Niemann. I was born in Alabama and moved to Alpine, Tx. in 1967 where I resided until 1997 when I moved to Midland. I have been attending Holy Trinity for approximately 10 years. I have 2 beautiful, smart daughters, Jessica, 22, and Gerron, 15. I am the owner of Wescon Services LLC, a plumbing, HVAC, electrical, and general maintenance service company catering primarily to national retail customers. I currently hold licenses for Master Plumber, Master Electrician, Class A Air Conditioning and Texas Electrical Contractor. Due to work and family obligations, I feel that I have not contributed as much to the Church as I have received. I feel that serving on the Vestry might even the scales a little. I have 40 years experience in facilities maintenance which I think might be useful in evaluating options we will be faced with in maintaining an older facility. I also have a lot of experience in working with the type of people the Church may be called upon in a time of need. The Lord must think I'm good at it as he sure brings a lot of people in need my way. I have been blessed in having the means to help on most occasions and with a slap upside the head occasionally, the Father has taught me to be a cheerful giver. If the congregation feels I can be of service, I can guarantee I will give full effort. My Dad taught me well. He always said: "if it's worth doing at all, it's worth doing well". Thanks for your consideration.

2016 Diocesan Delegates

Barbara Jowell

My happiness comes from giving back to the church that has been such a huge part of shaping my life for the past 50 years. I have enjoyed working and serving in nearly every capacity. I feel like two of our greatest challenges at Holy Trinity are attracting younger members and increasing membership. Prayerfully I feel like I am responding to these challenges by becoming more open to change so that I can be relevant to younger members.

Carla Anne Holeva

I'm a cradle Episcopalian! I would describe my faith as real - I believe in loving the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. My love for Holy Trinity is solid. Over the past two years, I have served on the Rector Search Committee, Vestry and as Altar Guild Director. All have been blessings in my life. Being a part of the Diocesan convention is a gift- I wish everyone could go and experience it. I would be honored to serve again.

Cindy Olive

I have been actively attending Holy Trinity for almost 30 years and consider each member a part of my family. The rewarding activities I have chosen to be involved with over that time include Music Ministry (Adult Choir, Handbells, Junior Choristers, Cherubs, Musikgarten), LEM, Youth Leadership, Youth Confirmation, Acolyte Master (15 years), UTO Chairperson (10 years), Christopher Ministry Team, Strategic Planning Committee, Council Head for Mission and Outreach, Pastoral Care, Membership and Community, Greeter Chairman, Rector Search Committee, Diocesan Delegate, and various Parish events. I am very passionate about our Parish and am blessed to be a member of such a wonderful group of people called together to do God's work. I am employed at Chevron as a geologist, having returned there after our two children, Dan and Victoria headed to college (Texas Tech and TCU). Don and I enjoy outdoor activities, hunting and camping, in Texas and Colorado. My personal interests revolve around gardening (Master Gardener-2008), stained glass, cooking, and many other creative endeavors.

Terry Jolliffe

I moved to Midland from Lubbock in 1978 and became a member of Holy Trinity in 1983. Since then, I've been a Sunday school teacher, VBS teacher, MDO coordinator, choir member, hospitality chair, Holy Trinity Trust board member, ECW president, and Vestry member. In the diocese, it has been my pleasure to serve as Diocesan ECW President, on the Executive Council and am currently on the nomination committee. I also co-mentor an EFM group. It is my vision for Holy Trinity and the diocese to continue the healthy growth that we've seen in the past few years so we can expand mission and outreach to our communities.

Mary Lou Cassidy

Mary Lou Cassidy is a life-long member of Holy Trinity. She is a lay reader, has been a Diocesan delegate and served on several vestries. Mary Lou is probably best known as that woman who gives the humorous State of the Church Report at the Annual Meeting. Her vision of our future is growth with tranquility. Her wish list includes more visible Holy Trinity involvement in Midland and in the Diocese.

Barbara Leeton

I have been a member of Holy Trinity for 30 years. My very first involvement was serving popsicles at VBS and then graduating through the years to serving on the Vestry and the last 2 Rector Search Committees. I grew up in West Texas, graduated from Texas Tech University with a BS/MS in Horticulture/Plant Physiology. I am married to Jim and have 2 grown children that were raised in Holy Trinity. My hope for Holy Trinity is that we grow in Love, Peace and Joy serving God!
